

SPRING HILL MESSENGER

Spring Hill Presbyterian Church, Mobile, Alabama

Volume 65, Number 11, February, 2010

From the Pastor's Desk...

On Sunday, February 28, a congregational luncheon will be held at 12 noon in the Bullard Building. The purpose is to provide a forum to discuss the church's mission, programs, and budget.

To understand our mission, it is helpful if not imperative, to examine the church's budget because the budget reflects what the Session believes, in concert with the congregation, is the will of God for our congregation. For that reason, the Session is eager to meet with you to review the church's programs and the budget that undergirds them. Brief presentations will be made by two or three elders and plenty of time will be allotted for questions.

A delicious meal will be served. I very much hope you'll be able to join others in learning about the ministries of Spring Hill. Again: February 28 at 12 noon. Let the church office know if you can attend. No charge for meal.

Yours in Him,

Norman

THE LORD'S SUPPER WILL BE CELEBRATED ON

Molly's Musings

"Yes, Lord, walking in the way of your laws, we wait for You; Your name and renown are the desire of our hearts."

Have you ever seen 21,000 college students worship Christ in one room? Have you ever seen them scrape together their money to donate a total of $650,000 to give to charities around the world? If your answer is "No" I can attest that it is a powerful and yet humbling privilege to behold.

On January 2nd, I loaded up 18 college students and four adults and headed to Atlanta for the Passion College Conference. It was an amazing 4 days of worship, fellowship, and service which is still having an impact on the students and me. No, I didn't add a zero to that figure above. Yes, 21,000 college students spent January 2 - 5 in Atlanta, Georgia studying God's word and worshipping together. It was unlike anything else I've ever experienced.

I guess the most amazing thing about Campus Ministry is getting to see God's hand at work in the lives of these students in such tangible ways. It is an incredible experience to see Scriptures being lived out before your very eyes. As you may know, one of the students that went with us came to know Christ during our trip. I cannot explain the 180 degree turn his life took in front of our very eyes. For us, it was seeing a life being laid down and a new one coming to life. It was an opportunity to witness the wind of the Spirit blowing transformation. It was all God and it was and continues to be absolutely glorious!

It just takes my breath away to think about what God is doing through His people, and it just leaves me speechless to think we have the opportunity to be a part of His master plan. In so many ways, He calls each of us to serve and give and live lives for His glory. Oh, I am so grateful that He still raises the dead to life, He still makes the blind see, He still speaks to His children, and He still purposes our days for His glory. This, my friends, is excellent news!

To God be the glory!

Mark's Remarks:

"Do Something Now"

The youth of Spring Hill have adopted the slogan "Do something now" a movement from Passion. The idea behind this movement is that together we can make a massive difference in the lives of people around the globe in Jesus name... We are all called to be the hands and feet of Christ, to go out and make a difference to serve the hungry and those who are thirsty, to care for the widows and orphans. James 1 says to not merely listen to the word, but do what it says. For those who faithfully do this will be blessed in what they do. One way the youth are striving to accomplish this is by collecting new towels and socks to distribute to local homeless agencies. If you feel led by the spirit to give, please find a youth or see Ashley or Mark.

An update on Compassion

I would like to inform you that the Youth of Spring Hill Presbyterian have completed their goal of raising $20,000+ to build a Child Survival Program (CSP). This is a huge accomplishment and something our church should be extremely proud of! I would like to personally thank all of the youth for their hard work and dedication to this remarkable cause. I also want to extend my greatest appreciation to you the congregation for supporting us in this endeavor. Many of you supported this cause monetarily and through much needed prayer. I want to ask that we continue to pray for this CSP. The physical location for our CSP is in Aquin, Haiti, approximately 60 miles from the devastation in Port Au Prince. There has been damage in Aquin but as of this time we are not aware of the severity.

Thanks again for all you have done to support our youth program!

A Note from Mary

The new Christian Education Catalogue is available. There are so many wonderful opportunities to learn about the Lord here, and so I ask you the question, do you know the Lord? You might conclude that I mean, do you talk to God each day in prayer, to which you might quickly answer, yes, I do. But, again I ask, do you know the Lord? Do you know how he thinks? Have you spent enough time with him to know his personality? You don't trust someone you don't know.

One evening as I knelt by my bed in prayer, I offered a supplication and out of the blue, I heard his voice. He simply stated, "I'm going to answer that prayer." I, of course, jumped up and ran bug-eyed to the phone to call my daughter. And as far fetched as that sounded, she believed me. My daughter knows me.

One of the most elementary things we first come to recognize in life is that getting to know someone requires spending time with them. In so doing, you come to know exactly how that person will respond or react to a situation. But, what I don't understand is why would anybody not want to get to know God. He created you and can do anything. Anything at all. Why would you not want to have a deep personal relationship with him? Ah, he's too judgmental. That's it. And you're right. In fact, you are going to stand before his judgment seat one day to explain to him why you didn't want to know him better.

But, let's not dwell on that. Let's go to the part where he demonstrates his profound love for you. Let's go to the part where he sees you turning off the alarm and watches as you call your children to get up and get ready for Sunday school. He sees you as you struggle to find enough time in the day to work at your job and still find time to do his work too. Love is patient and kind and God is love...unchanging and waiting for you to stop in the midst of it all and really talk to him. Let's go to the part where he promises to say, "Well done, my good and faithful servant."

Global Missions:

Malawi Theologian to Deliver Sermon March 7

Mark your calendar for March 7, 2010, when Rev. Deborah A. Chase will deliver the sermon for both services and will speak to a joint CE Class at 9:30 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall. The topic will be Malawi and the University of Livingstonia College of Theology, a seminary of the Synod of Livingstonia, where she serves as Dean of Academic Affairs and Lecturer of Old Testament, Systematic Theology and Pastoral Psychology. She also preaches and administers the sacraments at various churches of the Synod of Livingstonia.

The Synod of Livingstonia serves the northern region of Malawi through its 130 congregations, 500 primary schools, five secondary schools, and three hospitals, and through its development and relief work and evangelism programs.

Born in Appleton, Wisconsin, Rev. Chase graduated from the University of Wisconsin, Madison, with a Bachelor's Degree in Sociology. She worked for eight years as a Counselor and Social Worker before attending Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary. She later transferred to Princeton Theological Seminary from which she received a Master of Divinity Degree.

Rev. Chase has served churches in Michigan and Oklahoma and has been involved with her presbytery's partnership with the Synod of Livingstonia since its inception.

The Global Missions committee was introduced to the college in 2005 and we have provided financial support yearly to the college to help with the training of ministers and the operating expense of the college. It will be an exciting experience to have Rev. Chase visit with us during her Interpretation Assignment while in the US from January 2010 to June 2010.

Help for Haiti

The Presbytery of South Alabama is coordinating financial help for Haiti from our churches. If you want to make a gift for aid to Haiti, make out a check to Spring Hill PC and put in the "for____" line "Presbytery, Haiti". The Presbytery will match the first $10,000 given, dollar for dollar, with funds from the Presbyterian Disaster Fund, so that your $10 will become $20.

These funds will NOT be given to the Haitian government. Instead, they will be given to Presbyterian Disaster Teams already on the ground in Haiti, to buy needed supplies/medical items/food.

A Prayer for Haiti

The Synod of Living Waters has placed a prayer on the opening page of its Web site, dedicated to our sisters and brothers in Haiti who are still recovering in the aftermath of a devastating earthquake. The prayer, adapted from the Book of Common Worship, can be found at www.synodoflivingwaters.org.

Service Committee- A REPORT FROM THE CHAIR

To all our Members:

I have been blessed in the upcoming year with the assignment of being your Chair for the Service Committee. For those of you who do not know, the Service Committee is a branch of the Diaconate, and its mission is to serve the needs of our greater community, specifically various charities our church has decided to assist in any given year. Importantly, this committee provides a direct way for our church to express its love and its concern for the people of this community, and to carry out Christ's Great Commandment within our community. It has truly been a privilege to have worked on this committee for the past year (especially with such a great group of volunteers!), and I am looking forward to chairing the committee in the upcoming year.

Our Service Committee is structured where each separate charity our church serves has a designated member of our church as its representative. I have listed the designated representatives for each of the charities below, so that all of you will know who to go to if you have questions about those particular charities or if you would like to contribute to or otherwise assist that particular charity. Obviously, each of the charities within this congregation has their own special needs. Some of the charities, like the Service Center or Wings of Life, are in constant need of additional funds to maintain their operations. Some of the charities, like the Salvation Army and the Food Bank, are in need of more material donations. And some charities, like Victory Health Clinic and Habitat for Humanity, need actual volunteers to assist them in their operations. Every one of these charities serves a very important role within our community, and our church does a great deal to help them as they seek to meet their various challenges.

The charities and their designated representatives are as follows:

Presbyterian Children's Home – Sue Martino
Habitat for Humanity – Chris Pennington
Food Bank -Linda Fletcher
L'Arche of Mobile – Nancy Oppenheimer
Penelope House – Sylvia Weinard
Salvation Army Women & Children (Haven)
– Gwin Williams, Ellen Jones
South Alabama Women's & Children's Hospital - David Ayers
Service Center – Linda Fletcher
Crittenton Teen Services – Gwin Williams

Ozanam Pharmacy – Brian Campbell
Victory Health Clinic – Robbie Turnipseed
Young Life – Brian Campbell
Family Promise – Nancy McCrummen
Wings of Life – Jeff Ivey
Health Care for Homeless – Hilda Gewin
Home of Grace for Women – Sally Cobb
Salvation Army Deliveries – Sally Cobb
Red Cross Blood Drive – Basil Smith
Christmas Wish List – Weezie Taylor

Service Committee Discretionary ~

I say all of this not just to give you a report, but to offer a suggestion: even if you are not serving on the Service Committee, you too can get involved. The charities we serve at Spring Hill Presbyterian are all wonderful and special in their own way, and each serves a distinct need within our community. If any of you within our congregation feel led by God to do more for your fellow citizens of our community, then rest assured that the Service Committee can find a place for you!

I look forward to a great, albeit challenging 2010 as Chair of the Service Committee. We will give you monthly updates on our activities, and at any time if any of you have any questions and/or concerns, please do not hesitate to call either myself or any member of the Service Committee. God Bless you all in the upcoming year!

Best regards,
Robbie Turnipseed

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

I pray this year has many blessings in store for each of our members as well as our state and country.

I have accepted the task of chairing the Stewardship committee and have enlisted the help of Wes Pipes, Kendall Dexter and Bobby Crow. Our goal this year is not to ask for more money, time, or action. Our goal will be to motivate our congregation to prayerfully consider individual commitment to our Lord and Savior, our church, as well as our community. It is our belief that commitment of time, talents, and money should come from love and not guilt. Sometimes we simply forget the reason we are called as a people is proclamation of the Word. So this month our committee is asking each member to walk with us as we renew our personal walk with Christ and ponder our own hearts.

To God be the Glory!
